Sheriff Staly Kicks Off 2020 Re-election Campaign Hosts Successful Fundraiser on November 9th at Phillips Ranch with special guest Lt. Colonel Oliver North (USMC, Ret.)

BUNNELL, FL: Flagler County Sheriff Rick Staly kicked off his 2020 re-election campaign with a fun, western-themed fundraiser at the Phillips Ranch in Bunnell, Florida, with special guest Lt. Colonel Oliver North, USMC (Ret.).

"I am thankful to have served the citizens of Flagler County since 2017. With your support, we've been successful in reducing crime and making our neighborhoods safer," said Sheriff Staly. "With the community's involvement, crime is down over 25% and traffic fatalities are down 42%. There's still more work to do. Our 2020 Campaign is about continuing our successful programs and initiatives to pro-actively fight crime and to maintain the exceptional quality of life we enjoy in Flagler County."

"Rick Staly is one of America's top law enforcement leaders," stated Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North, "He's had an incredible impact on reducing crime. I am pleased today to join with his family and supporters in kicking-off his 2020 Campaign to re-elect Rick Staly as your Sheriff!"

During the event, Sheriff Staly expressed appreciation for two key endorsements which he has received from the Coastal Florida Police Benevolent Association (PBA) and Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge 171, organizations which represent both current employees of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office and retired law enforcement, corrections and public safety officers.

The fundraiser was held at the beautiful Phillips Ranch in Bunnell, which is owned by the Phillips family, who raise beef cattle and performance quarter horses.
