Sheriff Staly Announces Firefighters and Additional Law Enforcement Endorsements

Flagler County Professional Firefighters Association IAFF # 4337 and Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 165 Endorse Staly for 2020 Election

BUNNELL: The Keep Rick Staly Sheriff Campaign announces two additional key endorsements received by prominent law enforcement and firefighter organizations.

The Flagler County Professional Firefighters Association Local 4337 and part of the International Association of Firefighters has endorsed Sheriff Rick Staly for re-election. The Flagler County Professional Firefighters Association represents all Flagler County Fire/Rescue Division Firefighters and EMTs.

"...[We] proudly endorse Sheriff Rick Staly for the 2020 election," said Stephen D. Palmer, President of FCPFA. "Sheriff Rick Staly has proven to lead the Flagler County Sheriff's Office [in] a positive direction over his last term as Sheriff with the best interest of the citizens of Flagler County and the men and women to the Flagler County Sheriff's Office in mind."

"You have demonstrated that you are committed to the citizens of Flagler County, and to the men and women of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office," said Dominic Guida, President of FOP Lodge 165. "As Sheriff you have been proactive in your response to community problems, which is evident by the reduction of crime in our community."

The Fraternal Order of Police, Flagler Fallen Heroes Lodge 165, represents and is comprised of active local Law Enforcement and Corrections Officers.

"I am very honored to be endorsed by the first responders that serve our community daily and know my leadership the best," said Sheriff Staly.

Sheriff Staly was previously endorsed by the Coastal Florida Police Benevolent Association and Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 171 for his 2020 re-election.
