Retired Flagler County Sheriff Don Fleming Says Keep Rick Staly Flagler County Sheriff

BUNNELL, FL: The Keep Rick Staly Sheriff Campaign announces another endorsement.

Retired Flagler County Sheriff Don Fleming has endorsed keeping Rick Staly Flagler County Sheriff.

"I feel Sheriff Staly has earned a second term due to his proactive approach to law enforcement, reducing crime, educating the public and creating a positive environment for the men and women within the agency," said retired Sheriff Fleming.

"I appreciate Sheriff Fleming's endorsement of my vision and leadership of the Sheriff's Office since I took office in 2017," said Sheriff Rick Staly. "No one knows the responsibilities, pressures and demands of the Office of Sheriff unless you have sat in the chair so I am humbled by his endorsement. Since I have been Sheriff crime has been reduced by more than 36% and the Sheriff's Office has become a 4-diamond accredited law enforcement agency. We have also been recognized as one of the ten best places to work in Volusia/Flagler County."

Sheriff Staly was previously endorsed by local Mayors, past and current Flagler County Commission Chairmen, police chiefs, nearby Sheriffs, local state Representative Renner and state Senator Hutson, State Attorney Larizza, the local and state Fraternal Order of Police lodges, Coastal Florida Police Benevolent Association, who represent the men and women of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office, the Florida Police Benevolent Association, Clerk of Court Tom Bexley and the Florida Police Chiefs Association. Sheriff Staly has also been endorsed by the Palm Coast Professional Firefighters Association and the Flagler County Professional Firefighters Association.

Retired Sheriff Fleming served as Flagler County Sheriff from 2005 thru 2012.
